

Backflow Prevention

Are you interested in Backflow Prevention
Tester certification?

COURSE INFO

Get hands-on experience as you review the basic concepts of:

- Hydraulics
- Field test procedures
- Troubleshooting backflow prevention assemblies
- Cross-connections
- Hazards associated with cross-connections
- Circumstances that may cause backflow

Prerequisite: Prior industry experience in plumbing, irrigation, fire prevention, water distribution systems or related areas.

A Continuing Education Unit (CEU) certificate will be issued upon successful completion of the class.

Date: Feb 19-21 and Feb 26-28 9:00am to 3:30pm Mon – Wed

 Attendance for 6 days is mandatory for full certification*

Course Length: 2 Weeks

Total Hours: 36

Location: CTC—Economic Development Training Center
5330 Transport Blvd
Columbus, GA 31907

Full Course: $650.00 per person (Includes class materials)

Recertification: $250.00

 Requires attendance at one session—can be any day of your choosing other than the first and last day of class.*

PLEASE NOTE—the cost for the exam is NOT included. The fees, schedules, and exam locations are managed by the certifying professional organization.

Online Registration: <https://columbustech.coursetorm.com/category/backflow-prevention-tester>

Contact: 706-649-1838 • sfaircloth@columbustech.edu

